

SCIAEYC Call for Educational Session Proposals

The South Central Indiana Association for the Education of Young Children is now accepting proposals for presenters and topics for the 2nd Annual Conference

Putting the Pieces Together: It Takes a Village.

Ivy Tech Bloomington
Saturday, September 21, 2013
Bloomington, Indiana

All proposals must be submitted by June 30, 2013
To: SCIAEYC@gmail.com

Conference Theme:

Putting the Pieces Together: It Takes a Village* conference is looking to reach Educators, Administrators, Directors, and Caregivers in the field of Early Childhood. Our purpose is to provide necessary training hours for professional development as well as helping our community unite and build resources for children birth through age 8.

Suggested Presentation Topics:

Brain Development, Relational Care, Curriculum, Challenging Behaviors, Self-Care, Environments, Movement, Social Emotional, Health, Safety, Infant/Toddler, Preschool, Stress, Early Childhood Administration, Licensing, Accreditation, Paths to Quality, Assessment, Resources, Early Intervention, Multicultural, and others.

Session Style and Length

Putting the Pieces Together: It Takes a Village educational sessions will either be 60 or 120 minutes in length. Classrooms are equipped with:

- Computer, projector, internet access.
- In an effort to produce a greener conference and strengthen our community, all presentation slides, papers, and handouts are invited to be uploaded with speaker permission onto the Bloomington Commission on the Status of Children and Youth's website: http://bloomington.in.gov/sections/viewSection.php?section_id=642
- The speakers are industry experts who are highly qualified to speak on this topic and have a wealth of experience.
- The learning objectives are clear, relevant to the topic presented and challenging to the SCIAEYC audience.
- The proposed session provides attendees with relevant, timely, rigorous and applicable content.
- This session offers inspiration to early childhood professionals.

The Conference Committee's responsibility is to produce the strongest possible educational program for conference attendees by including new, important content and learning experiences. SCIAEYC is committed to providing engaging, interactive, educational offerings at the conference.

- Accepted presenters who are not able to attend must notify conference staff immediately. Replacement presenters must be suggested and approved by the Conference Committee. They reserve the right to modify or cancel any session based on a change in presenter.

Proposals should include:

- Presenters Name and credentials
- Early Childhood affiliation
- Length of session (60min or 120 min)
- Name of Session (for brochure)
- Brief Description of Session (for brochure)