

Putting the Pieces Together: It Takes a Village

September 21, 2013

South Central Indiana AEYC

8am-4pm

Ivy Tech Community College

Bloomington, Indiana

Workshop Possibilities

- Talk with your Hands —Calling all Blockheads: Learning with Blocks
- Soothing Touch: Collaboration Between Parents and Caregivers
- Home Visits and Family Partnerships —Musikgarten —Temperaments
- Creating Environmentally Healthy Classrooms —Literacy Playshop
- Designing Effective Transitions to Kindergarten —Expect the Unexpected
- Self-care for the Educator: Managing Stress through Nourishment —Parent Engagement
- Death and Young Children —Exploring Nature with Young Children
- Teaching Strategies that Support Children's Thinking —Administrator's Round Table
- Developing Executive Function through Play with Preschool Aged Children
- Supporting English Language Learners —Put Down the Book and Tell!
- Touch! It's not Just for Babies —Greening Your Playground —Move, Grow, and Thrive!
- Developing Executive Function through Play with Preschool Aged Children
- Brain Changes in Early Childhood —Dual Language Learners —Doing Drives Learning
- Musical Notes: How Singing, Clapping, and Tapping Support Early Literacy Development
- Paths to Quality™ and National Accreditation: What You Should Know!
- Intergenerational Experiences —I Make a Difference —Continuity of Care
- Ideas for Incorporating Movement Into Early Childhood Education Programs
- It's All About Relationships —You See, but Are You Seeing?
- I'm a Big Kid Now (Foundations)

