Volunteer Fair at the IU Student Involvement Fair – Sept. 9

The IU Student Involvement Fair provides a great opportunity to make students aware of organizations on campus and what your organization does for the community. This is a time to recruit volunteers from a population that is new to IU – or returning and looking for opportunities to get involved. This is a time and place where you can showcase your organization or your services to people who are interested. This is the only Student Involvement Fair of its size at IU and is sponsored and supported by the Commission on Multicultural Understanding, the Indiana Memorial Union and Union Board, the Office of Orientation Programs and the Student Activities Office. Send check to: 2009 IU Student Involvement Fair c/o Student Activities Office, Indiana University, Indiana Memorial Union, room 371, Bloomington, IN 47405.
