

This map of Ellettsville, Indiana, illustrates the city's road network and proposed transit infrastructure. Major highways are shown as thick grey lines, including US-46 running north-south and US-37 running east-west. Local roads are depicted as thinner grey lines. Key landmarks and parks are highlighted in green, such as the Cascades Golf Course, North HS, and various parks like Highland Park and Stoneybrook. A network of proposed transit routes is overlaid on the map: a solid orange line for the main route, a dashed orange line for a branch, and a green line for another branch. These routes connect major hubs like the Ellettsville Union Valley Farm and the Ellettsville Bypass. A compass rose in the bottom left corner indicates North. The map also shows various residential areas and commercial zones, providing a comprehensive overview of the city's layout and transit planning.
