

Nonprofit Board Roundtable

Money and the Nonprofit Board

A Conversation on Evaluating Finances, Balancing Budgets, and Identifying New Revenue

Discuss how to:

- Use the budget process to increase financial stability
- Evaluate financial statements – quickly and easily!
- Identify trends in nonprofit revenue

Bring Your Lunch
Bring your Questions
Share Your Ideas
Hear New Concepts

Learn how your board can better lead your nonprofit into the future!

Discussion
moderated by Al
Lyons PhD, IU-SPEA faculty member in nonprofit mgmt.

Date Thursday, February 23
Time 11:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.
Location McCloskey Room
Cost FREE! But space is limited, rsvp required
RSVP to 349-3472 or volunteer@bloomington.in.gov

Join the conversation!

This Nonprofit Board Roundtable gives board members and other nonprofit leaders a chance to come together to share concerns, exchange ideas, and find out how you might better develop, evaluate, and increase nonprofit finances.

Presented by:

It is open to anyone with an interest in or experience with nonprofit boards. It assumes that participants have a basic knowledge of board legal and fiscal responsibilities.