

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Birthday Celebration Commission

The City

of Bloomington Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Birthday Celebration Commission celebrates the life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and promotes the acceptance of diversity. The Commission invites all those of elementary, middle and high school ages to submit an original video that addresses the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Successful videos will include specific references to the life and legacy of Dr. King.

All videos posted by the deadline and deemed acceptable to the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Commission will be available for viewing and voting by the public. The winning video may be shown at the Bloomington Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Birthday Celebration on Monday, January 21, 2013 at the Buskirk-Chumley Theater.

Length: 45 seconds to 180 seconds

Eligibility: Anyone of elementary, middle, or high school age in the greater Bloomington, IN area

Deadline: November 30, 2012

Individual Prize: One Apple iPad;

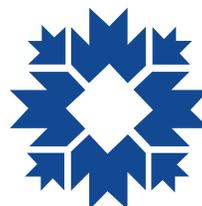

or

Group Prize: Gift Card(s)

Submissions:

1. Submit your videos by posting them on YouTube by 5:00 pm on Friday, November 30, 2012 and provide your URL in the on-line submission form at bloomington.in.gov/mlk. For information on providing your URL, contact Craig Brenner at 812-349-3471 or brennerc@bloomington.in.gov prior to Nov. 27, 2012.
2. You must also print, sign and submit a Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Birthday Celebration Commission Video Contest Participant Release Form. This form is required for any local person appearing in the video, including but not limited to persons videotaped, quoted, or recorded.

City of Bloomington
Community and Family
Resources Department

www.bloomington.in.gov/mlk