

City of Bloomington Community and Family Resources

Welcome to Bloomington!

The Community and Family Resources Department (CFRD) serves as a resource to individuals, families and organizations in the Bloomington community, coordinating services, programs and activities that promote an enhanced quality of life and help to build a strong, vital community.

The department is located at 401 N. Morton Street, Bloomington, IN 47404 in Suite 260 of City Hall. For more information about the department please call 812-349-3430 or email cfrd@bloomington.in.gov. Office hours are from 8am to 5pm, Monday thru Friday. More information about each program and initiatives can be found on the City of Bloomington website at www.bloomington.in.gov/cfrd.

The Community and Family Resources Department is dedicated to improving the quality of life in Bloomington through programs and services designed to strengthen community and family ties and increase overall community capacity to address social issues.

From promoting volunteerism to enhancing community wellness through healthcare initiatives to addressing diversity and minority issues, the Community and Family Resources staff works everyday to make Bloomington a better place for everyone to live.
