City of Bloomington Citizen's Academy

The City of Bloomington Citizens' Academy provides participants with an interactive learning experience about City services, programs and responsibilities.

This year's Citizens' Academy session begins Thursday, August 14 and runs through October 9. To ensure the quality of the experience, the session will be limited to 30 participants.

All classes are from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm, unless noted, every Thursday evening.

Citizens' Academy
Class of 2013

The HAND Department developed the Citizens' Academy in 1999 to encourage civic involvement. Through sessions with City Departments, participants learn about the challenges of city government, budget limitations, day-to-day operations and mandates in this fun and educational 9-week program.

"The Citizen's Academy class exceeded my expectations of understanding how the City of Bloomington operates. I highly recommend it to anyone in any career who loves Bloomington and wants to know how to make a difference."

Daniella Brunton - Class of 2013

If you are a City resident or student interested in civic participation or learning more about local government operations or how your tax dollars are spent, we encourage you to apply!
