

2008 Volunteer Administrator Conference

Wednesday, August 6, 2008

Pre-Registration Required

Sign-in and Continental Breakfast
8:00 a.m. EDT

Conference: 8:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. EDT

Adams Mark Indianapolis
2544 Executive Drive
Indianapolis, Indiana 46241

For more information please contact:

Donna Stutler
Conference Chairperson
317-856-5201
Donnas@damar.org

– Sponsor –

CIAVA

P.O. Box 732
Indianapolis, Indiana 46206

SAVE MONEY!
REGISTER BY JULY 7TH, 2008!

Best Practices in Volunteer Management

Volunteer Administrator Conference

Wednesday August 6, 2008

– Presented By –

Registration Form

Name:

Company:

Address:

City:

State:

Zip Code:

Telephone:

Email:

Check One:

Early Registration Postmarked By July 7, 2008:

- CIAVA Member - $65
- NON-Member - $75

Registration After July 7, 2008:

- CIAVA Member - $90
- NON-Member - $100

Please Make Your Check Payable To: CIAVA

Send Your Registration To:

CIAVA
P.O. Box 732
Indianapolis, Indiana 46206

Who Should Attend

Rookie and seasoned Volunteer Administrators from all industries will benefit from this conference.

Sessions:

Chris Akers:

The Land Before Best Practices

- What were we doing?
- How did we get here?
- How do we know?

Cheryle N. Yallen:

Best Practices as a Leadership Tool

- What is "best practice" and why are they important?
- How can best practices become your most important leadership tool?

Applying Best Practices to a Volunteer Program

- How and when are they used?
- Where do you start applying best practices to your volunteer program?
- Who should be included when drafting best practices?

Creating Best Practices for Your Program

- What specific best practices are needed to ensure an effective volunteer program?
- What activities or techniques can be applied to achieve the best practices?

What the Conferences Includes

- Internationally Acclaimed Speaker
- Networking with your professional peers
- Continental Breakfast and Lunch Buffet
- Opportunity to re-energize yourself and your volunteer program through best practices.

Chris Akers:

A New Frontier:

- Keeping your tools sharp for the future and continuing to make the tools work!

Conference Speakers

Cheryle N. Yallen

Cheryle N. Yallen, President of CNY Enterprises, is an international trainer/consultant, bringing over twenty years of social services experience to the consulting field. This experience includes working with non-profit organizations as a consultant, executive director, board member and volunteer. Ms. Yallen has designed and implemented an array of training, recruitment and fundraising programs. As a current practitioner, as well as a consultant, she brings up-to-date solutions to today's challenges.

Christopher R. Akers

A seasoned trainer and public speaker on topics such as team building, verbal intervention and dual diagnosis, Chris uses an effective and energizing blend of humor and practical wisdom to capture his audiences and inspire every individual to reach new levels of commitment. Chris draws on more than a decade of professional experience assisting children with intellectual disabilities to providing consulting services to industry organizations and youth mentoring programs across Indiana.

Need Room Reservations?

Adam's Mark Indianapolis at the Airport

2544 Executive Drive
Indianapolis, IN 46241
317-248-2481

Call the Adam's Mark Registration Desk; inform them that you will be attending the 2008 Volunteer Administrators' Conference