Don't miss this opportunity to participate in a free networking event featuring workshops to learn more about leadership—from sitting on a local council, board, or commission to running for political office—and creating positive change in our community. Workshop topics include:

- "Peace Work" – Workshop led by Bobbie Wrenn Banks, Founder of Pathways to Peace and former National President of WAND
- "Green Work" – Panel featuring local environmental advocates and activists: Lucille Bertuccio (moderator), Cynthia Shultz, Maggie Sullivan and Christine Glaser
- "Women's Work" – Workshop led by Mary Embry, Fair Trade Bloomington board member

Please join us for as much of the event as your schedule permits. For more information contact Sue Owens at 812-349-3468 or owenss@bloomington.in.gov.

This event is free and open to the public.
