ORDINANCE $5 - 25

To Add Section 20.10.09.00 Entitled "Higher Density Residential Development" to the Bloomington Municipal Code

Whereas, the Bloomington Plan Commission has considered and recommended that the Bloomington Municipal Code be changed;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT HEREBY ORDAINED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BLOOMINGTON, MONROE COUNTY, INDIANA, THAT:

SECTION I. Chapter 20.10, Regulations for Conditional Use, shall be amended to add the following new section:

20.10.09.00 Higher Density Residential Development. In recognition of the need for revitalization of the downtown area and the role of residential development in such revitalization and in recognition of the area, the proximity to services provided in the Central Business District and the accessibility to other community activities and in order to encourage and promote the efficient use of land, to maintain and enhance property values, to minimize travel needs and to promote the vitality of the downtown area, the Plan Commission may approve a proposal for residential development as provided below, after holding a public hearing. Development permitted under this section shall be subject to all of the requirements of the applicable zone, except that Lot Area per DU, Useable Open Space per DU, Maximum Lot Coverage, and FAR constraints shall not apply. Such hearing shall determine that:

- A. The site is in the area shown on the map (Attachment A). This section shall not be applicable to any site not so located.
- B. The design of the structure and site are compatible with the surroundings, with emphasis on the quality of architectural finish, landscaping, and the reglationship to the design of existing buildings nearby.
- C. Off-street parking meets the requirments of Chapter 20.14, including any residential development in the BD zone approved pursuant to this section.
- D. Residential use in the BD or BG zones approved pursuant to this section shall not occupy the first floor unless specifically authorized by the Plan Commission in conformance with the Comprehensive Plan or the Redevelopment Plan for the downtown area.
- E. Storm water discharge from the site will not adversely affect surrounding property and any increase in the rate of discharge will not unduly contribute to adverse conditions down-stream. To this end, storm water retention may be required.
- F. The sanitary sewer and water distribution facilities in the area are adequate to serve the proposed development.
- G. On-site landscaping shall be provided at least 1½ times the normally required Density Value (D Value). Additional plantings may be required in order to satisfy B above.

SECTION II. Severability. If any section, sentence or provision of this ordinance or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be declared invalid, such invalidity shall not affect any of the other parts of this ordinance which can be given effect without the invalid part, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are declared to be severable. SECTION III. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage by the Common Council and approval by the Mayor.

PASSED and ADOPTED by the Common Council of the City of Bloomington, Monroe County, Indiana, upon this 19 day of June, 1985.
