SYNOPSIS

In 1976 the Council adopted a requirement that all appointments to city boards and commissions be made from city residents except where exempted by state or local law. A number of qualified applicants have been unable to serve the city because they live beyond the city limits, but because these boards and commissions often make policy that affects the two-mile fringe, this ordinance has been submitted to amend the original requirement to allow these persons to serve. The ordinance also clarifies that once a person moves from the city and its two-mile fringe, he or she must resign from the board or commission. The sponsor of the ordinance is Council President Allison.
