SYNOPSIS

This ordinance amends Chapter 8.20 of the Bloomington Municipal Code entitled "The List of Designated Historic Districts" in order to designate "Apartment Row" located at 314-316, 318-320, 322-324 North College Avenue as a historic district and rate them as "contributing" structures. The Bloomington Historic Preservation Commission sought these actions and, after a public hearings on October 14th and November 4th, 2004, recommended them to the Common Council based upon certain historic and architectural criteria set forth in Title 8 (Historic Preservation and Protection). Their nearly identical appearance, Queen Anne and Free Classic style, former residents and owners, and role in the downtown residential market in the early 20th Century supported the recommendations. Once this ordinance has been adopted, the property would be regulated by the requirements that apply to all historic and architecturally worthy districts so designated by the Common Council. These regulations preserve and protect the property from demolition and include the review of exterior modifications.
