

RESOLUTION NO. 74-4

WHEREAS: in a democracy the fundamental element is citizen involvement in the government and

WHEREAS: as city reporter for the Courier Tribune Ann Smith has unswervingly provided the citizens of this area with accurate well written and unbiased reporting on city events and business and

WHEREAS: as city editor for the Courier Tribune Ann Smith has directed a number of extremely able reporters in their accurate, well-written and unbiased coverage of the local news and

WHEREAS: the demise of the Courier Tribune has taken from the people of the area one opportunity to become well and accurately informed

NOW HEREBY BE IT RESOLVED that the Common Council of the City of Bloomington register its deep regret that the citizens of our community has lost an increasingly good newspaper and an extremely capable city reporter and editor and

HEREBY BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Common Council of the City of Bloomington proclaim January 18, 1974 Ann Smith Day.

passed by Council

1-17-74

James S. Ackerman
James S. Ackerman
President
Bloomington Common Council

approved by Mayor

1-29-74

Francis X. McCloskey
Francis X. McCloskey, Mayor

