SYNOPSIS

This ordinance amends the List of Designated Historic Districts in the City of Bloomington to include property located at 324 East Second Street. The Bloomington Historic Preservation Commission investigated the local designation of this property at the request of the property owner and has recommended that it be classified as "notable," because of its architectural integrity, its significance in local history, and its unique use of building materials. The property will be subject to the regulations found in Title 8 of the Bloomington Municipal Code, entitled "Historic Preservation and Protection," which are intended to preserve and protect the exterior portions of historic properties.
