

RESOLUTION 98-02

TO APPROVE MODIFICATIONS TO THE "AGREEMENT TO EXTEND THE 1987 AGREEMENT IN LIEU OF ANNEXATION" AND TO RATIFY THE MAYOR'S EXECUTION OF THE DOCUMENT

- WHEREAS, on December 17, 1997 the Bloomington Common Council approved Ordinance 97-55 "To Modify and Extend the 1987 Agreement in Lieu of Annexation Between the City of Bloomington and Certain Industries" (hereinafter referred to as the "Extension"); and
- WHEREAS, between January 12 and January 14, 1998, the twelve industrial signatories approved and executed the Extension, contingent on three modifications; and
- WHEREAS, the first modification extends the rights and responsibilities of the Extension to successors of the industrial signatories; and
- WHEREAS, the second modification clarifies that industrial parties may sell a portion or all of their industrially zoned property to another industrial party, and that party shall become a "successor industry"; and
- WHEREAS, the third modification allows the Extension to be declared null and void with respect to any breaching party, but permits the Extension to remain binding with respect to all other non-breaching parties; and
- WHEREAS, the Administration approves of and supports the above-mentioned modifications and the Mayor, on advice of counsel, initialed the proposed changes on January 13, 1998, with the understanding that final ratification of the modifications rested with the Common Council; and
- WHEREAS, the Extension required execution by all parties no later than January 15, 1998, and such requirement was fulfilled, but must now be ratified by the Common Council due to the modifications which occurred after approval by the Common Council on December 17, 1997; and
- WHEREAS, the Common Council finds that the modifications proposed by the industrial signatories provide all parties with greater assurances that the benefits of the Extension will remain in effect for the entire fifteen year period, by reducing the ability of any individual signatory to nullify the entire agreement, and by making the Extension binding on any successor in interest to an industrial signatory.
