SECTION 9. Severability. If any section, sentence or provision of this ordinance, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall be declared invalid, such invalidity shall not affect any of the other sections, sentences, provisions, or applications of this ordinance which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this section are declared to be severable.

SECTION 10. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage by the Common Council and approval by the Mayor.

PASSED and ADOPTED by the Common Council of the City of Bloomington, Monroe County, Indiana, upon this 19th day of February, 1997.

ANTHONY PIZZO, President
Bloomington Common Council

ATTEST:

PATRICIA WILLIAMS, Clerk
City of Bloomington

PRESENTED by me to the Mayor of the City of Bloomington, Monroe County, Indiana, upon this 20 day of February, 1997.

PATRICIA WILLIAMS, Clerk
City of Bloomington

SIGNED and APPROVED by me upon this 20 day of February, 1997.

JOHN FERNANDEZ, Mayor
City of Bloomington

SYNOPSIS

This ordinance changes the name of the Human Resources Department to that of Community and Family Resources Department. It removes their connection with the Bloomington-Monroe County Drug Commission and removes their responsibility for services connected with "artistic and cultural affairs" and with the "social impact of planning, housing development and economic development." The ordinance also rephrases the department's role in reviewing funding for social services.
