INTERDEPARTMENTAL MEMO

TO: Dan Sherman Common Council
FROM: Doris Sims, Personnel Director
SUBJECT: Amended Salary Ordinance 92-31
DATE: July 22, 1992

I would like to substitute an amended copy of salary ordinance 92-31 for the current ordinance 92-31 which will be considered by the Common Council at their July 22 Committee meeting. When the original salary ordinance was submitted, the City's negotiation team was at an impasse with the Fraternal Order of Police bargaining team. Due to state law requiring police and fire salary ordinances to be passed by August 2 of each year, an ordinance setting salary for both police and firefighter personnel was submitted to guarantee passage by the deadline. The salary amount submitted for police of $1,000.00 represented the same yearly increase which is under the current police contract. The amended ordinance reflects the correct salary figures for police officers finally negotiated with and approved by the Fraternal Order of Police.

The following amendments were made to the salary ordinance: increased salary rate for detectives, senior policy officers (SPO), and officer 1st class from $1,000 to $1,200; increased afternoon shift premium from $11.00 to $12.00; increased night shift premium from $13.00 to $14.00; and increased unscheduled duty pay from $16.00 to $17.00. Also, Section IV of the ordinance is amended to make the salary and premium changes subject to final approval and passage of a Collective Bargaining Agreement with the Fraternal Order of Police.
