SYNOPSIS

This ordinance reappropriates the National Park Service Grant (UPARR) awarded to the City of Bloomington for renovating sections of the Westside Community Center Building and Grounds and reappropriates the required local match. The grant and matching funds were first appropriated in 1991 (App. Ord. 91-1), but a construction contract could not be awarded and the funds could not be encumbered due to the extended design and review phase of this project.
