

RESOLUTION 89-29

A RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING OCTOBER AS DOMESTIC VIOLENCE
AWARENESS MONTH

- WHEREAS, over six million women are victims of domestic violence each year in the United States; and
- WHEREAS, we in Bloomington are committed to restoring one of our basic rights--the right to freedom from fear in our own homes; and
- WHEREAS, the problems of domestic violence are not confined to any group or groups of people but cross all economic, racial, affectional preference and social barriers; and
- WHEREAS, in our quest to impose sanctions on those who break the law by perpetrating violence, we must also meet the needs of battered women and their children who often suffer grave financial, physical and psychological losses; and
- WHEREAS, our children are our future, and while educating them about violent behavior may not solve the immediate problems of domestic violence, it will make a difference in years to come; and
- WHEREAS, the crime of domestic violence violates an individual's privacy, dignity and security, often leaving an imprint of fear and hostility; and
- WHEREAS, the impact of domestic violence is wide-ranging, affecting not only our community but society as a whole.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BLOOMINGTON, MONROE COUNTY, INDIANA, THAT:
