

RESOLUTION 87-12

To Support the Park Bond Capital Improvements Proposal

WHEREAS, the Bloomington community takes pride in its rich variety of quality leisure programs, and

WHEREAS, the Mayor of Bloomington and the Bloomington Board of Park Commissioners are recommending to undertake a $3.8 million dollar bond issue primarily aimed at improving and renovating existing parks and recreation areas, and

WHEREAS, new facilities are needed to help meet the increasing demands of current and future recreation programs, and

WHEREAS, these improvements will greatly enhance the quality of life which attracts so many people to our community and encourages so many more to stay in our community, and

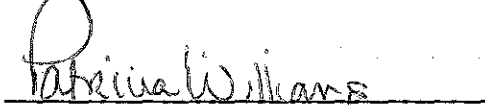

WHEREAS, these improvements will lend even greater credence to our claim as the recreational and cultural center of Indiana.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT THE CITY OF BLOOMINGTON COMMON COUNCIL enthusiastically supports the Park Bond Capital Improvements proposal and encourages the citizens of our proud and beautiful community to petition for these worthwhile recreational investments for present and future generations to enjoy.

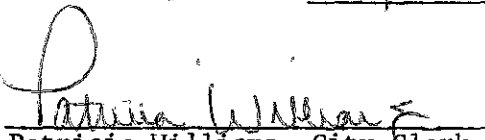

APPROVED AND ADOPTED this 19th day of August, 1987.
