

RESOLUTION 81-33

ENCOMIUM FOR CITY CLERK NORA CONNORS

WHEREAS, Nora Connors has served the Bloomington Common Council for over six years in various capacities as Deputy City Clerk, Legal Research Assistant, and City Clerk; and

WHEREAS, Nora has always been a cheerful, dedicated, and sympathetic friend to the Council, and her wit, wisdom, and willingness to work have been a source of inspiration to her fellow workers for years; and

WHEREAS, Nora's charm and tact have endeared her to the many members of the public whom she has aided over the years, and her uncanny ability to weather political and interpersonal storms in the Council Office has astounded both friends and foes alike; and

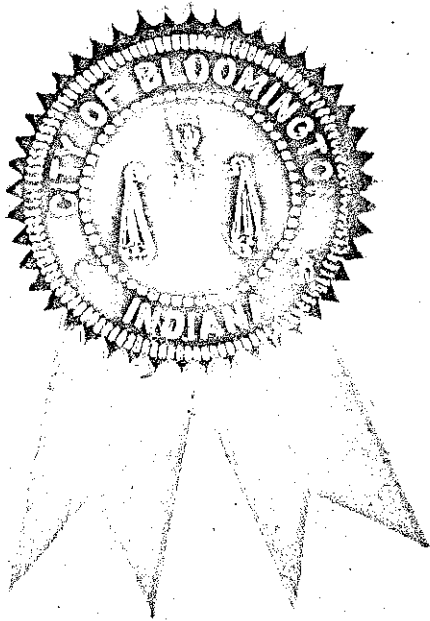

WHEREAS, Nora has chosen to leave the security and safety of her home town of Bloomington to seek her fortune in the jungles of New York City; and

WHEREAS, Nora will be sorely missed by the Bloomington Common Council, the Mayor of Bloomington, her fellow employees in the Municipal Building, and her legions of friends throughout the community;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL AND THE MAYOR OF BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA, THAT:

The Bloomington Common Council and the Mayor of Bloomington express their gratitude to Nora Connors for her many years of dedicated service to the City of Bloomington, their regret at her decision to leave Bloomington, and their wish for her survival, happiness, and success in her new career in New York City.

ADOPTED UPON THIS SIXTEENTH DAY OF DECEMBER, 1981.
