SYNOPSIS
RESOLUTION 77-31

To Continue the Existence of the Special Committee on the Downtown

The Special Committee on the Downtown was created by Resolution 76-40 in October, 1976 and was to last for a period of not more than one year. Because the Committee feels it has been successful in ^{its continuing efforts to} ~~meeting~~ its goals and objectives and because there are several projects in which it still expresses an interest, the Committee has requested that its existence be continued for the indefinite future. This resolution approves the continuance of the Committee.
