NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BLOOMINGTON, MONROE COUNTY, INDIANA THAT:

SECTION I. At least one month before the expiration of an appointment, and immediately on the vacancy's occurrence in the case of an unexpected vacancy, the city board or commission shall write a synopsis regarding the vacancy, giving the name of the board or commission, the number of vacancies and any requirements for eligibility, the duties of the position, an estimate of the time required to fulfill the duties, and compensation.

SECTION II. The synopses shall be sent to the Mayor's Office in the case of a Mayoral appointment and to the Common Council Office in the case of a Council appointment. Upon receiving the synopsis, those offices shall edit them as necessary. They shall then be sent, together with a statement on how to apply for the position, to the local media.

SYNOPSIS

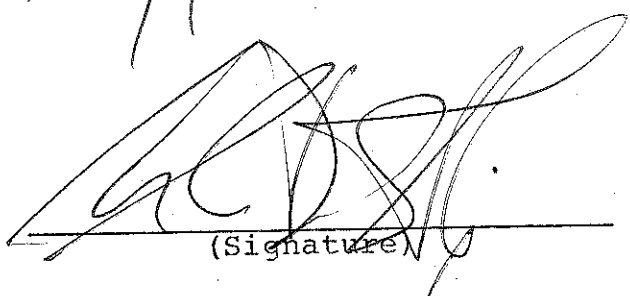

Ordinance 76-27

An Ordinance Regarding Common Council and Mayoral Appointments to City Boards and Commissions

Throughout the year the Mayor and the Common Council make a large number of appointments to various city boards and commissions. Although both the Mayor and the Council seek to make their appointments from a wide segment of the community, often only a few people know the vacancies exist.

This ordinance requires that a synopsis on the position be prepared and submitted to the local media for publication when a vacancy occurs. The synopsis would include the duties, compensation, the time demands and eligibility requirements of the vacant position and how citizens could apply for consideration for appointment to it. The ordinance further provides that no appointment could be made before the synopsis had been submitted to the media for fifteen days unless an emergency exists on a board or commission.

I HEREBY MOVE THAT ORDINANCE 76-27
BE INTRODUCED AND READ AT FIRST READING AT THE COUNCIL
MEETING ON June 3, 1976
