

RESOLUTION 76-13

A RESOLUTION TO SHORTEN COUNCIL MEETINGS

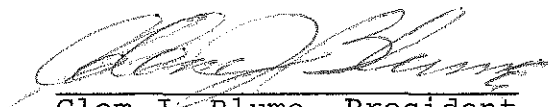

WHEREAS, Common Council meetings have been running to 11:00 p.m. and beyond, and

WHEREAS, both Common Councilmembers and citizens tend to work at much less than peak efficiency after 10:30 p.m. and often fail to give adequate attention to legislation after that time,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA, THAT:

No new legislation may be introduced for Council action after 10:30 p.m. at its regularly scheduled meetings.

ADOPTED this 16th day of March, 1976, by the Common Council of the City of Bloomington, Indiana.

Clem J. Blume, President
Bloomington Common Council

APPROVED by me this 19 day of March, 1976 at the hour of 3 o'clock p.m.

Francis X. McCloskey, Mayor
City of Bloomington

SYNOPSIS

RESOLUTION 76-13

A Resolution to Shorten Council Meetings

Council meetings have recently been lasting past 11:00 p.m., and it is felt that legislation that is considered that late does not get as close scrutiny as it deserves. This Resolution would provide that no new legislation may be introduced for Council action later than 10:30 p.m.
