

RESOLUTION NO. 73-24

A RESOLUTION TO COMMEND THE 1972-73 INDIANA UNIVERSITY BASKETBALL TEAM FOR ITS OUTSTANDING PERFORMANCE AND CONFERENCE TITLE

WHEREAS, Our own Indiana University basketball team finished the Big Ten Conference this year with an 11-3 record to earn the first place final standing in the Conference and the first clear Big Ten title since 1958; and

WHEREAS, Our own Indiana University "hurryin" Hoosiers finished the season with a 19-5 overall mark and final standing of #6 in the nation; and

WHEREAS, Our own Indiana University coach, Bob Knight, has provided his team with the spirited leadership which brought the team last year to the National Invitational Tournament (N.I.T.) and this year to the National Collegiate Athletic Association (N.C.A.A.) tournament; and

WHEREAS, Our own Indiana University basketball team has seen outstanding performances all season, not only from its nationally recognized seniors, but also from a lively and talented group of underclassmen; and

WHEREAS, The Bloomington community is extremely proud of this great I.U. team, its spirit, and success,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA that the 1972-73 Indiana University basketball team hereby be recognized and commended for its exceptional efforts, consistently fine play, and outstanding achievements and for bringing honor to the University and to our community, and that said team and its great coach be cheered on to victory in the N.C.A.A. competition.
