

Resolution 72-2 Number One On Council

Whereas the press has reported an opinion by an otherwise unimpeachable source that a fellow councilman is number nine on this council, and whereas that councilman is qualified by heredity, size, capacity, balanced views to a degree bordering on imbalance, sagacity, district, superior experience stemming from previous election and unflappable sense of humor, the Common Council of the City of Bloomington hereby declares that Councilman Jack Morrison is Number One in all relevant respects notwithstanding the previous report, that if the report is published again we will not read it, and that if any man disputes this resolution we will pass it again.
