Report on start teams

- CAPS members taking on 2 teams with NET Impact
 - One is community support. Identifying a way the community is supported. Still deciding what to do. Looking at community resources, low-income housing, and rent support. How that can be more attainable and successful
 - Policy aspect looking into zoning still deciding what exactly to do.

Start team - Real estate

- Reports helping troubleshoot the program, restructuring it to better fit our needs and the needs of the START team,
- Possible ideas
 - Looking into an organization (from Indy) that develops sustainable/accessible real estate from already existing properties.

Miller reports data from 46 inmates

- Can give us insight into what to focus on for the following year
- Show what needs there are for certain populations
- Identify the need to connect these resources that already exist. such as case management

Ford reports on independent study

- Independent research study on perceptions of bystanders after seeing police and - MI interaction. Will be able to report both survey results with a larger population and qualitative studies.
- Will be able to adhere to ethical guidelines and share with others.

Talks about procedural justice and the need to ensure interactions with police are humane

Miller talks about an app that reports on daily bookings from the Monroe county sheriffs department
