Statutory Incentives - Enterprise Zone Investment Deduction

One of the principal drivers of economic development within the Urban Enterprise Zone is the Enterprise Zone Investment Deduction or EZID. This statutory incentive offers a ten-year property tax deduction for the augmented value of enterprise zone business property due to qualifying real and personal property investments. This deduction has been instrumental in attracting businesses and stimulating economic growth within the Zone.

Qualifying investment means:

- 1. The purchase of a building.
- 2. The purchase of new manufacturing or production equipment.
- 3. Costs associated with repairing, rehabilitating, or modernizing an existing building and related improvements.
- 4. Onsite infrastructure improvements.
- 5. The construction of a new building.
- 6. Costs associated with retooling existing machinery.

Businesses in the Zone must claim the incentive available to them by June 1 of each year by:

- 1. Submitting an EZB-R to register their investment with the BUEA
- 2. Report the investment with the Monroe County Auditor's Office
- 3. Pay the annual participation fee of 20% of a business's total tax savings from the incentive. (The municipal legislative body determined this upon the creation of the EZ)

Under IC 5-28-15-4, Incentives not available to certain licensees, specifically any business with any type of wholesale alcohol or wholesale tobacco sales license or receives at least 60% of annual revenue from retail food sales

If the Enterprise Zone business property is located in the Enterprise Zone and a Tax Increment Financing (TIF) District, the Common Council must approve the Enterprise Zone Investment Deduction. A portion of a business's savings from the Enterprise Zone Investment Deduction is paid to the Urban Enterprise Association, which uses the funds to support its local programs. Over 16 years, the EZID program has averaged nearly FOUR HUNDRED AND FORTY THOUSAND DOLLARS, with an average annual participation of 35 companies.
