We will use this spreadsheet to keep us organized in the planning process. Erin asked if there were certain agencies that we share S.W.A.G.G.E.R. nominations with (like Middle Way House, New Hope etc). Katie mentioned that in the past the commissioners have tried to target Title 1 schools.

3. Danielle will table at Arlington Heights and Tri North
 4. Katie will table at North Bloomington High School
 5. Tatiana is willing to table whatever school, she may be out of town her school is TBD as of now.
- ii. Last month: We need commissioners for Jackson Creek and Highland Park. Erin will make a spreadsheet to organize the commissioners' tabling schedules. The group discussed the need for knowing what outreach supplies we have. Emily will ask Shatoiya about the commission's inventory of outreach material. Erin brought up the idea to do a survey asking people "how do you want the city commissioners to support your children?" Another tabling idea is to have a big sheet of paper with the question "How do we make Bloomington the Best Place to Raise a Kid? People could then put their answers onto post-it notes. Erin can work on making the survey for our outreach strategy. We talked about adding a discussion of the outreach strategy to the May 2023 agenda.
 - iii. Updates and Discussion of Outreach Strategy:
- f. Schools Out Summer Celebration:
 - i. Last month: Erin reached out to the Crestmont Club and they are interested but want more information. Tatiana emailed Sherrie Clay and Leon to ask if the BHA is hosting any school out celebrations. She hasn't heard anything back. Erin doubts BHA is hosting anything so she will continue to talk to the club about ideas. Katie mentioned that Thriving Connections is hosting a summer celebration May 25th for kids. There will be an outdoor movie and hotdogs. In the event that BHA and Boys and Girls Club aren't doing anything, we can volunteer and support the event Thriving Connections is hosting.
 - ii. Update:
 - g. Teen Commission Liaisons:
 - i. Project Overview: The commission discussed changing this initiative into creating spots on the commission for teen representation. The group agreed to focus on having liaisons from each highschool. We talked about having an application and a nomination form to recruit students. Liaisons will be responsible for sharing challenges - how do we make this a platform for the voice of youth. Marissa suggested looking into school clubs that may be good to reach out to for a good starting place. What teens can get out of this: they can choose their "resume name", letter of rec, etc . Emily will mock up a scope of work that details what the teen liaison will be doing. Tatiana offered to chair this initiative.
