COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA

ORDINANCE 2026-YY
UPDATING TITLE 2 TO PROVIDE BETTER APPORTIONMENT OF REPRESENTATION ON THE TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION AND ENVIRONMENTAL COMMISSION

Preamble

Whereas, in February, 2025, the Transportation Commission was established by the Bloomington Common Council through Ordinance 2025-04 and modified by Ordinance 2026-04;

Whereas, Bloomington Municipal Code 2.02.100(b) sets out the requirements for appointing commissioners to the Transportation Commission, including two seats that are intended to prioritize participation by a board member, employee, or formal volunteer related to the Monroe County Community School Corporation (MCCSC) who lives within the Bloomington city limits:

(7) Two members shall be appointed, one by the mayor and one by the council, and shall be residents living within the city limits. Preference for appointments shall be given to board members, employees, or other formal volunteers with Monroe County Community School Corporation, especially as involved in safe routes to school, pollution reduction, and school bus utilization; and members of community organizations dedicated to serving marginalized groups, especially safety-marginalized transportation users;

Whereas, while all of the seats on the Transportation Commission are currently filled, it has been challenging finding a qualified participant with ties to MCCSC who also lives within the city limits;

Whereas MCCSC facilitates transportation of over 10,000 students per school day in Monroe County, including 18 MCCSC schools within the city limits;

Whereas, due to the volume of students being transported to MCCSC within the city limits, participation by an MCCSC employee on the Transportation Commission remains a high priority;

Whereas, the Environmental Commission was established in 1971 by Ordinance 71-39 as the Commission on Environmental Quality and Conservation;

Whereas, the Environmental Commission has 12 seats and four seats are currently vacant, including two seats that have been vacant since October of 2024.

Whereas, the Novak Report assessing Bloomington boards and commissions, completed in * recommended a review of longstanding vacancies and consideration of reduction in commission size when appropriate.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT HEREBY ORDAINED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BLOOMINGTON, MONROE COUNTY, INDIANA THAT:

Section 1. Transportation Commission Appointments. Section 2.02.100(b) shall be repealed and replaced in its entirety with:

(b) Appointments: The commission shall consist of nine members, none of whom may hold any employment, elected, or appointed position with the City, unless specifically permitted as outlined in this section:

(b) Appointments. The Environmental Commission shall consist of nine members, five appointed by the Common Council and four appointed by the Mayor.

Section 3. Severability. If any section, sentence or provision of this ordinance, or application thereof to any person or circumstances shall be declared invalid, such invalidity shall not affect any of the other sections, sentences, provisions or application of this ordinance which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this ordinance are declared to be severable.

Section 4. Transportation Commission Change Effective Date. Transportation Commission changes in Section 1 will take effect on January 31, 2027, unless seat C-3 vacates prior to that date.

- (a) With the exceptions noted in this section, the council may resolve itself into a committee of the whole to consider ordinances, resolutions, or other matters with the freedom of committee procedures. The council may decide by majority vote to cancel any such committee meeting or to meet at an alternative date and time. The council may by majority vote resolve itself into a committee of the whole at any other time and for any other legitimate purpose.
- (b) Whenever the council resolves itself into a committee of the whole the presiding officer shall leave the chair. Chair of the committee meetings scheduled for Wednesday evenings and city budget hearings shall rotate by alphabetical order among all councilmembers except the council president and such rotation will be tracked by the city clerk. Should a councilmember be unable to attend a committee meeting the next member on the rotation shall preside and the rotation shall proceed from that point. The council president will designate the chair for any unscheduled committee meetings.

(c) When the council resolves itself into the committee of the whole, the rules of the council shall govern except that:

(1) The committee of the whole may consider only matters and questions referred to it, and the only motions in order shall be to amend or adopt, or that the committee rise and report;

2.04.255 Committees—Scheduling.

(a) When a committee is to consider legislation referred by the council, it shall convene its meeting on the second or fourth Wednesday of the month. The council may decide by majority vote to cancel any such committee meeting, or to meet at an alternative date and time.

(1) If more than one standing committee has had legislation referred to it during the same period of time, the committees shall not be scheduled at the same time, so that any council members may attend any meeting.

(2) Such committee meetings shall not begin before 5:30 p.m. or after 9:45 p.m.

(b) The president shall have the authority to refer legislation to the appropriate committee when the legislation is introduced for first reading, but such a referral may be changed by a motion approved by a majority of the council. recess, on the Wednesday evening immediately before Thanksgiving Day, or on or between the fourth Wednesday in December and New Year's Eve.

2.04.270 Ordinances and resolutions—Filing, copies and agendas

The president shall approve the agendas for regular sessions, special sessions called by the president or voted upon by the council, and committees convened to consider legislation referred to them. The president may, at the meeting when ordinances are introduced for first reading, announce that the council will consider any of those ordinances as well as any resolutions expected to be considered during that legislative cycle at the next two regularly scheduled committees of the whole before receiving formal action at the following regularly scheduled regular session.

The council staff shall prepare and distribute digital copies of the agendas and legislation to the council members, the mayor, and corporation counsel

- (b) The council may by a majority vote of the members present adopt any method for tabulating the vote, including a random or alphabetical order of calling the roll.
- (c) During a roll call vote on any question, it shall be out of order for any member to offer remarks as the member is voting other than a short and concise explanation of his vote. After a roll call vote, it shall be out of order for any member to offer any remarks on the question that had been voted upon.
- (d) Members shall vote on all questions before the council except in situations where there is a conflict of interest or for other good cause. If a member fails to vote upon any matter, any other member may raise the question and insist that the member either vote or state the reason for not voting and be excused.
- (e) Any member may change a vote before the result is announced, and afterwards by leave of the council provided that the change will not affect the result. In no case shall a member absent when the question is put be allowed to vote after the result is announced.

2.04.390 Motions generally.

- (a) When a motion is made and seconded it shall be stated by the presiding officer before it shall be debated. The name of the member making the motion or offering any business shall be entered into the minutes.
- (b) A motion may be withdrawn by the maker, but if there is any objection to the withdrawal, it may not be withdrawn until a motion to that effect has been passed.
- (c) A motion shall be reduced to writing upon request of any member or city clerk.

2.04.400 Motions when question is under debate.

When a question is under debate, no motion other than pertinent incidental motions shall be entertained except to adjourn or recess, to lay on the table, for the previous question, to postpone for a definite time, to refer to committee, to amend, or to postpone indefinitely, which motions shall have precedence in the order above named and only the motions to postpone for a definite time, to refer to committee, to amend, and to postpone indefinitely shall be debatable.

2.04.410 Motion for the previous question.

The motion for the previous question shall only be admitted when demanded by a two-thirds vote, and until it is decided, shall preclude all further amendments and debate of the main question. The effect of the previous question shall be to bring the council to a vote on the immediate question under discussion.

2.04.420 Motion to adjourn or recess.

- (a) A motion to adjourn or recess shall be decided without debate and shall be in order at any time, except when it is repeated without intervening business or discussion, when a member is speaking, when the previous question has been ordered, or during roll call.  - (1) A motion to recess to another day, which requires a second and a majority vote, shall not be in order unless the meeting's time of resumption is at least twenty-four hours after its initial call to order.
 - (2) Paragraph (c) shall not be subject to suspension under Section 2.04.090.

2.04.430 Division of question.

2.04.440 Motion to table.

A motion to lay a question under consideration on the table shall take precedence over all amendments or debate of the question. Any matter laid on the table may be taken up by a vote of the council at any meeting after the meeting at which it is tabled. The motion to table may not be debated.

2.04.450 Motion to postpone indefinitely.

If a motion to postpone indefinitely is adopted or a motion to reconsider a negative vote has been laid on the table, the main question shall be declared defeated and removed from before the council for that session.

When any question has been decided in the affirmative or negative, any member voting with the majority may move a reconsideration of the vote before adjournment.

Concurrence of a majority of the members present shall be sufficient to order reconsideration of a vote, but if a motion to reconsider is defeated, it shall not again be entertained.
