THE BMC.

Clerk Williams read the ordinance by title only.

Olcott moved and Morrison seconded a motion to adopt Ordinance 82-67. Olcott gave the committee report.

Towell said that the committee recommendation to remove the definition of weed from the ordinance was a fair amendment. Anything not defined takes on a legal meaning of its own, leaving wide open the opportunity of appeal in this particular situation.

Olcott said that the additional five day (total of 10) notification period was a positive step.

Allison said that the height of one foot was put in the original ordinance in order to provide the nuisance officer something tangible to use as a guide. The basis of all the nuisance ordinances is to control situations that could be detrimental to public health.

Mike Andrews thanked the council for being responsive to their concerns and understanding the need for an appeal process.

Jim Cartmell spoke on behalf of the Wildgrove gardeners.

Jay Crawford presented a series of slides showing various high weed locations in Bloomington and contrasted the area in question before and after the cutting process. Mike Andrews presented the commentary for each of the slides. He said that the weed ordinance is bound to be selectively enforced and cited the several weed plots in the city. The slides of the various areas supported his comments very effectively.

Brian Werth asked if there would be a complaint would the nuisance officer just go out and start cutting.

Service said that the notice would be given and the recipient of the notice would have the ten day appeal period.

Micah Roseberry said that the goal of the gardeners was to practice a form of natural gardening with a broader concern for natural plants.

It was moved and seconded that the definition of weeds should be deleted from the ordinance.

The amendment received a roll call vote of Ayes: 9, Nays: 0

The Ordinance, as amended, received a roll call vote of Ayes: 9, Nays: 0.

Steve Hogan complimented Mike Andrews on his presentation and said that he felt that he was a victim of selective enforcement. He said that the intention of the ordinance was not to pick on people but to address the problems of hazardous situations.

Murphy commended the gardeners, apologized for the present situation and hoped that the amendment would take care of future problems; that's what city government is all about - addressing the needs of people.
