2. Old Business:

A. 50+ Expo wrap-up

- i. Nice response to 50+ Expo. Not many questions on the commission but did get some new sign-ups for newsletter
- ii. Thank you from Dayna to those that helped to get artist to attend. Hope to continue to do that next year.
- iii. Good response from artist that were in attendance.

B. Update on recruiting new commissioners

- i. Wendy Rubin – has submitted an application to join the Commission on Aging. It is working through the process. Wendy is planning on attending the meetings as a public member until the appointment is set.
- ii. Have 2 spaces still on the commission to be filled.
 - A. Need Jenny Donegan to craft a letter officially resigning from the commission.

C. Annual Report

- i. Marissa has started the annual report. She will send draft to Jack, Elizabeth and Dayna for review.

3. New Business/Additional Agenda Items:

A. Dementia Friendly Training:

- a. Dayna: 45 min to hour

B. Transportation issues: Bloomington Health Foundation has secured some funding but is working on a plan on what to do with the funding.

- a. Suggestion for the Commission to start a letter about the transportation needs and the need for beyond emergency medical. Need to be accessible beyond socio-economic status or technological abilities. ET to start the draft and pass it around.

C. Raise awareness of the Medical options available to seniors – Dayna will add Robert to the Endwright group

D. Resource Guide – Sandra McGow will champion. Potential opportunity to partner with Town Planner. Idea to produce something similar to the Bloomington Parks and Recs
