City of Bloomington
Human Resources Department

MEMORANDUM

To: City Council members

From: Emily Fields, Interim Human Resources Director

CC: Mayor John Hamilton, Deputy Mayor Mary Catherine Carmichael, Controller Jeff Underwood, and Council Administrator Stephen Lucas

Date: June 14, 2023

Re: Amendment to Ordinance 23-13 which amends Ordinance 22-25 which fixed the 2023 salaries for police officers and firefighters

Fire would like to pay its new firefighters a one-time signing bonus of $5,000 within their first year of employment. This ordinance adds this compensation in Section I I to Ordinance 23-13 which amends Ordinance 22-25. Ordinance 22-25 fixed the 2023 compensation for police officers and firefighters.

Your approval of this ordinance is requested. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions at 349-3541.

Subsection (2)(D) shall be amended by replacing “$10.00” with “$35.00.”

Subsection (2)(E) shall be amended by inserting “(4.30)” in the first sentence and adding “In the event a resident schedules an additional pick-up and fails to place the cart at the curbside prior to the collection time, said resident will still be charged the full rate for the additional pick up” as a second sentence so that the subsection reads as follows:

Additional pick up requests: one hundred twenty-five (125) percent of regular weekly solid waste charges based on four and three-tenths (4.30) weeks on average per month, per year. In the event a resident schedules an additional pick-up and fails to place the cart at the curbside prior to the collection time, said resident will still be charged the full rate for the additional pick up.

Subsection (3) shall be amended by inserting the word “the” in the first sentence so that it reads as follows: “The fees for solid waste collection and disposal services provided to single-family residential dwellings shall be billed directly to the customer of record with CBU.” The final sentence of subsection (3) shall remain in place and unaltered.

Synopsis

This amendment is sponsored by Councilmembers Flaherty and Volan. It replaces the proposed sanitation service fee ranges with a schedule of service fees that would increase over the course of five years. The intent behind the fee increases is to gradually reduce the amount of support needed from the city’s general fund to cover the expenses of providing sanitation services.
