Jessica Stephens, Site Manager, T. C. Steele State Historic Site, got here Bachelor of Arts (Majors: History & History of Art, Minor: Classical Civilizations) and Masters of Science in Education (Art Education, emphasis in Museum Education) from Indiana University. In the summer of 2011, she interned at the Peggy Guggenheim Collection in Venice, Italy. She has also worked for five years at the Morris Museum of Art in Augusta, Georgia, where her final title was the Assistant Curator for Education Programs, and at the Indiana State Museum, as the Youth Programs Manager for three and a half years, before T.C. Steele State Historic Site, where she has been since July, 2020. While in Bloomington she interned at WonderLab, Mather's Museum, Indiana University Art Museum, and the Monroe County History Center.
