

CITY OF BLOOMINGTON COMMISSION ON AGING

Tuesday, January 12, 2016 4:30 p.m.
HOOKER CONFERENCE ROOM #245, CITY HALL
401 N. MORTON STREET, BLOOMINGTON, IN

AGENDA

1. Call to order, verification of quorum, introductions – Alice Oestreich
2. Presentation on WHCOA Policy Brief: Long-Term Services: Lauren Cowan & Julie Hill
3. Approval of Minutes of December 8, 2015 regular meeting
4. Liaison Report – Sue Owens
5. Initiative Updates
 - A. Creative Aging Festival – Julie Hill (See emailed minutes from CAF Steering Committee meetings)
 - B. Sally’s Place – Sophia Hauserman
 - C. Best Cities for Successful Aging (BCFSA)
Final Report - Lauren Cowan, Jack Kahn & Gail Londergan
6. Other Agency Reports/Updates (Attached to agenda or printed copies distributed)
 - A. City Council – Jack Kahn *Council usually meets first four Wednesdays of each month. Each Friday before a Council meeting, the Council Office posts the meeting agenda, legislation and all background documents (reports, memoranda & maps) at: http://bloomington.in.gov/sections/viewSection.php?section_id=14.
Next meeting will be Wednesday, January 13 at 7:30 pm*
 - B. Active Aging Coalition – Lauren Cowan January 21, 11:30 am, Bell Trace downstairs dining area
 - C. Elder Justice Committee – Jack Kahn continues with this group.
 - D. Active Living Coalition – Gail Londergan continues with this group.
 - E. Affordable Living Group – Lauren Cowan continues with this group.
7. Old Business:
 - A. Recognition of Service to Commission on Aging - Sophia Hauserman
8. New Business:

How can we increase involvement of Commission with decision-making groups in the city, such as our participation/input with the groups that are working on:

 - Final wording of Growth Policies Plan for the City of Bloomington
 - Standards for developing the areas in downtown Bloomington
 - A proposed Center for Global Aging at IU
 - Reorganizing the IU Campus Community Children’s Center to become an intergenerational care center
 - How to re-purpose the current Bloomington Hospital building once the new one is constructed.
9. Announcements from Commissioners
10. Public Input:
11. Motion to adjourn – Jack Kahn