Council President Rollo gave the Agenda Summation

AGENDA SUMMATION

The minutes of June 6, 2007 were approved by a voice vote.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES

Steve Volan welcomed students back, and urged them to contact the council if they wanted to see how city government worked. He also wished his father a Happy 78th birthday.

REPORTS:
COUNCILMEMBERS

Chris Sturbaum said he went to Chicago and saw a most impressive public art exhibit entitled "Cool Globes," an innovative outdoor art project of 124 extraordinary globes designed to create awareness and inspire practical solutions to global warming.

Tim Mayer welcomed everyone back and also welcomed newcomers to the city.

Dave Rollo reported that the Indiana Regulatory Commission held a hearing on a proposed expansion of a power plant in Edwardsport, Indiana and thanked the community for coming out and waiting to speak. He noted that The Guardian from Britain had just published a report entitled "Loss of Arctic Ice Leaves Experts Stunned," noting that an area almost twice as big as the UK had disappeared in the last week alone. He noted that the article indicated that that we need to cut our carbon emissions and need more federal leadership on this issue.

COUNCIL COMMITTEES

Bloomington citizen Kevin Ryan presented material on local threats resulting from global limitations. He raised questions about the cause of the events on September 11, 2001 and invited the public to attend a panel discussion on the subject at the Buskirk Chumley Theatre on Monday, September 10, 2007. He also showed slides previewing his presentation.

PUBLIC INPUT

Ruff asked Ryan why many folks did not know that a third building fell on 9/11. Ryan noted that the third building was not even discussed in the 9/11 Commission Report.

Bloomington citizen Gabe Rivera said that you could choose between saving the world or being happy, but the two don't often coincide. He noted that he had produced "Why Did It Happen?" on CATS in 2003 that also questioned activities on 9/11. He added that we participate in local threats every day by creating the war on drugs.

There were no appointments to boards or commissions at this meeting.
