

City of Bloomington Commission on Aging Meeting Minutes 2/12/2019

1. Call to Order

Members present: Phil Stafford, Yonda Snyder, Jenny Donegan, Lori Clendening, Gail Londergan and Sue Owen

- a. Meeting was called to Order by Phil. Verified quorum. Motion to approve minutes by Jack Kahn and second by Jenny Donegan
- b. Introductions and welcome to new commission Lori Clendening who is the Director of Resident Service at Meadowood Retirement Center.
- c. Commission is 10 years old 2019 and Jack is our last charter member.

2. Liaison Report

The city of Bloomington Parks and Rec. will be hosting the 50+ Expo and Sue has reserved 2 tables for the commission on aging.

The event is May 8th at Twin Lakes from 3-6pm. We discussed table items and ways to engage the participants of the event. We will have our brochure and buttons to give away and we can use our new signage. The following shifts have been committed to by commissioners;

50+ Expo May 8th
3-4 pm Phil
4-5 pm Jenny and Lori
5-6 pm Jack and Yonda

Jenny to make a signup sheet for the event to capture address for our newsletter and followup for those interested in coming to a commission meeting to learn more or become a commissioner. Invite Gail to join us at the expo table to pitch a workshop if we have details at that point.

3. Old Business

a. Lifetime Communities Phil

- i. Dementia-friendly - Sherwood April 10th 9am - 3pm - 100-120 to attend Planning Agenda - 3 tasks- Proclamation (Sue), Funds, Rep. from Commission to speak, Phil will not be able to attend. Yonda offered to support #3 if given the specific data to report from Phil.
- ii. Sharing Lifetime Community Concepts - Phil reported that the photos were updates and corrected and that the document is being refined to be then resubmitted for printing.

- b. Comp Plan and UDO Unified Development Ordinance - Jack reported that the website for the City of Bloomington Transportation and Planning will be updated with the new content in the next few days. He made a request to Sue to get a copy of the new UDO.

City of Bloomington Commission on Aging Meeting Minutes 2/12/2019

4. New Business

a. Gail Trout Workshop on Fraud Prevention - Yonda

- i. Yonda met with Gail and she would like support for her workshops from the commission.
- ii. Yonda referred her to INCASE a program a state level.
- iii. Yonda will reach out to Gail and followup on some local opportunities ie: WTIU conf.

b. Conversation regarding Goals for the Year Ahead

- i. Community/Senior Center Leadership position - Phil will invite Paul McDevitt and Becky Higgins from Parks and Rec. to our March 12th meeting.
- ii. Data - digital tools for informing seniors - Libby (Libby is leaving the commission so this item is on hold.
- iii. Creative Aging - Film Festival - Yonda will meet with Libby to get her vision and then Yonda and Jenny to discuss future.
- iv. Lifetime Communities - Popup Intergenerational Play Street - Phil is working with the City Art Director to plan the location and logistics of the PopUp Park aka Tactical Urbanism.
- v. Additional Outreach

1. WTIU Conference on Aging- Aug 3rd Gail attended last year and felt it was not a fit for us to table at the event. Cost prohibitive, not in our reach. However, she has an opportunity for the commission to have a voice at the Lunch break out session. Gail and Phil to create and submit proposal to her contact at WTIU. Ideas for the session include using media of Coming of Age in an Aging America and then 15 min talk by Phil.
2. 50+ Expo 2019 - The event is May 8th at Twin Lakes from 3-6pm. We discussed table items and ways to engage the participants of the event. We will have our brochure and buttons to give away and we can use our new signage. The following shifts have been committed to by commissioners; 50+ Expo May 8th
3-4 pm Phil, 4-5 pm Jenny and Lori, 5-6 pm Jack and Yonda

Jenny to make a signup sheet for the event to capture address for our newsletter and followup for those interested in coming to a commission meeting to learn more or become a commissioner.

3. City Council Annual Report - Phil will be presenting at the meeting on 2/20/2019 at about 7pm the meeting starts at 6:30pm

Commission currently has a balance $1,100 in our account, from past fundraising effort.