Jean Capler, MSW, LCSW, is the Local Support Network Leader in Southern Indiana for the Resource Facilitation Department of the Rehabilitation Hospital of Indiana. In this position, she works to improve the lives of brain injury survivors by building capacity in communities. She provides trainings on brain injury and resource facilitation to individuals who have experienced brain injury, their families, and to providers in the community who may serve those individuals in a variety of capacities. She has experience working in mental health, addictions, and as an employment consultant. Jean is committed to improving services for people with brain injuries by helping their service providers become more knowledgeable about brain injury and more effective in identifying and working with survivors.
