BLOOMINGTON BOARD OF PUBLIC SAFETY

The Bloomington Board of Public Safety held a Regular Meeting on Tuesday, July 16, at 6:00 p.m., in the City of Bloomington McCloskey Conference Room located at 401 N. Morton Street, Bloomington, Indiana.

CALL TO ORDER

President Susan Yoon called the meeting to order about 6:06 p.m. Other Board members present were: Luis Fuentes-Rohwer and Maqubé Reese. Others attending are listed on the attached sheet. Kim Gray came in later in the meeting.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES

The full Board was not in attendance until later in the meeting. Approval of the minutes was voted on later in the meeting after the discussion of the Farmer's Market as follows:

Susan Yoon noted that in the June minutes the matter of the Goads personnel issue should be moved from the purchase section to the personnel section in the minutes.

Luis Fuentes-Rohwer made a motion to approve the June 18, 2019 minutes as amended. Maqubé Reese seconded the motion and the motion carried with Susan Yoon abstaining.

CERTIFICATION OF EXECUTIVE SESSION

Susan Yoon certified that the Executive Session was for receiving information concerning the Goad disciplinary matter and to be put on notice of an additional personnel issue.

POLICE DEPARTMENT BUSINESS

Report on Monthly Statistics, Training and Incident Reports; Letters of Appreciation and Commendation

Deputy Police Chief Joe Qualters reported on the monthly statistics, training and letters of appreciation and commendation. He noted property crimes were down with an increase in person on person crimes. He noted increased burglaries in District 2 which is the northeast quadrant of the City. Qualters noted it appears that some of the transient population has made their way into summer vacant residences. Deputy Chief noted a slight increase in domestic violence as well.

Deputy Chief Qualters reviewed the training statistics and courses. He noted new body cam training.

The Community Engagement events included 59 different events for June. The department had Coffee with a Cop, Neighborhood Resource Officers visited various sites as well as other events. This month the Department is having the Teen Academy Week with a participant in the audience.

Two letters of appreciation were noted concerning Sgt. Burns, Probationary Officer Dawson and Senior Police Officer Hasler.

General Business

Chief Mike Diekhoff reported on General Business. Chief Diekhoff spoke about the Teen Academy. He noted it has 50 participants this year. He gave a brief synopsis of the annual event.

Chief Diekhoff brought to the Board's attention that the department has reinstated the Police Chaplain program. Don Griffin is the Chaplain and is a former BPD Officer. Board member Reese asked if it was voluntary; Chief answered yes. Board member Yoon asked if it was on an as-needed basis; Chief answered yes.

Chief Diekhoff advised the Board that the department recently had a CALEA review, which is a police accreditation review. It was a good review and the department is now up to date on that.

Further discussion on the Teen Academy was held.

Purchases: Expenditures/Procurements

Chief Diekhoff stated there were no major purchases.

Personnel Issues

Captain Ryan Pedigo reported on personnel issues. He noted there are 7 openings and generally reviewed the hiring process.

Board member Maqubé Reese noted that there was expected to be a heat wave and asked what the department, if anything, had planned for that. Chief Diekhoff noted that individuals in distressed could call for help and they would respond and noted that the City might be planning for that.

Board member Luis Fuentes-Rohwer brought up a recent incident where an individual was cutting and stabbing himself and asked what sort of care officers get following such an event. The Chief responded this is where they brought in the Police Chaplain and made him available and they debriefed the officers. The department follows up with the officers as well. The Chief also explained that the City's employee counseling program is available as well as other peer officer programs. Deputy Chief Qualters noted that the department has available the same psychologist who does the new candidates screening. Discussion was held on whether the culture was open for an officer to say they need help.

Approval of Conditional Offer

Luis Fuentes-Rohwer moved to accept the recommendation by the police department to tender a conditional offer of employment with a start day of September 9, 2019, to the following prospects: Gary Cooksey, Ryan Combs, Tyler Keen, Bariela Esquivel and Avvoob Abd-llah; Reese seconded. The Board unanimously approved same.
