Service welcomed everyone back after the summer recess and thanked the organizers for the wonderful annual 4th Street Art Festival over the Labor Day weekend.

MESSAGES FROM COUNCILMEMBERS

Sabbagh said the HoosierNet Annual meeting will take place on September 16, 8:30 PM at the Mental Health Center and part of the agenda will be the request for community input for the HoosierNet opportunities. He presented his fellow councilmembers with a mousepad from XJD compliments of Tim Beglin.

Kiesling thanked everyone involved in donating the chess boards for Peoples Park and also reminded everyone of the parenting conference this upcoming weekend at the Convention Center.

Banach welcomed his "new neighbors", the returning IU students.

Cole also welcomed everyone back to Bloomington as well as incoming freshman. She reminded everyone about pedestrians and that pedestrian always have the right of way at intersections and we all need to be mindful of good neighbor courtesies. The semi-annual city wide cleanup starts on September 9-20 and the list of what is collectable and not collectable was itemized.

Mayor Fernandez also welcomed students, faculty, staff and council back to Bloomington and work. He noted new aspects of the Trash sticker program providing mail-order forms as well as the ability to purchase stickers at City Hall as well as the Utilities Department.
