MINUTES FOR APPROVAL

Sherman commented on the recent permitting for our landfill expansion and said it is an important piece of the entire solid waste disposal puzzle. He thanked Kiesling for all her years of effort for these programs.

MESSAGES FROM COUNCILMEMBERS

Service thanked everyone involved in last weeks visit by our Sister City, LuChou, and the wonderful middle school jumproppers who came to perform for the International Meeting in Indianapolis and stayed in Bloomington for a few days. She also thanked the BCAT crews who cover the council meetings for providing the television coverage that allows us to have a well informed citizenry.

Kiesling talked about an IU Victim/Offender program offered tomorrow as well as upcoming League of Women Voters activities surrounding the 75th Anniversary of the 19th amendment, granting the right to vote to women.

Clerk Williams presented the councilmembers with gifts from our Sister Cities visitors.

Pizzo announced that Congregations for Peace and Physicians for Social Responsibility are having a tree planting ceremony in Bryan Park on Sunday commemorating the 50th anniversary of the bombing of Hiroshima.

COMMITTEE MESSAGES

Sherman announced the start of a Pilot Program on four recycling routes to include corrugated cardboard and magazines. If all goes well, the program will be city-wide on January 1.

Evelyn Powers talked about the upcoming Lotus Dickey Festival and fundraising efforts for a songbook/project commemorating this legendary local musician. She also talked about the soon to be facility for women dealing with substance abuses and she thanked everyone who has worked on the committee to make this facility a reality.

PUBLIC INPUT

Joe Lee and Chris Luckinbill presented a proposal and petition to the council urging the council to encourage the concept of street art for on the construction board walls around Bloomington at this current time. This would be a good all inclusive project that could really involve the youth of the community.

Cole was very enthusiastic about the project and had several suggestions about rotating the art panels and various ways of hanging them.

White expressed support for the project and suggested that the Commission for Bloomington Downtown be involved in the project. He thought this was a real positive idea.

It was moved, seconded and approved by a voice vote that Patrick J. Murphy to appointed to fill the unexpired term of Rex Hume on the Public Transportation Corporation.

APPOINTMENT TO BOARDS
