Service welcomed Council Attorney Kathy Saunders back from her travels, thanked the various Chinese student organizations for putting together the memorial programs we have had in the last weeks supporting the students in Beijing, China and said that if there is a way we can help students remain in this country we should help.

White congratulated the I.U. Foundation for their successful Campaign Indiana fundraising efforts that netted $306 million. A gala was held on Saturday night to celebrate the event.

Regester represented the City at the I.U. event and a good time was had by all. He also announced a vacancy on the Plan Commission.

Mayor Allison introduced Millard Qualls, with the Bloomington Amateur Radio Club and Mr. Qualls invited everyone to Bryan Park this weekend to see simulated radio emergency conditions portrayed.

MESSAGES FROM THE MAYOR

Mayor Allison read an encomium for Dr. David Parkhurst who is leaving the Environmental Commission after 15 years of yeoman duty. Dr. Parkhurst reminisced about the years, thanked Pam Service for attending almost as many years of monthly meetings and thanked everyone for Jane St. John, part-time recycling coordinator. He did recommend a part-time person for just the Environmental Commission to help facilitate the program. Service said that David has been a major contributor to the commission and also thanked him for his years of care and concern.

The Mayor showed the Council an award from the State Board of Accounts that the City received in recognition of good government.

Mayor Allison read an encomium for National Recreation and Parks Month. Vickie Mays made a dazzling presentation to the Council inviting everyone to the July 9 "Parks Sampler" and then outlined a phenomenal list of summer park activities in addition to the regular programs.
