APPROVAL OF MINUTES

Young congratulated the 1987 primary winners and thanked everyone who took the time and effort to vote in the primary on Tuesday, especially the voters in Council district 3.

MESSAGES FROM COUNCILMEMBERS

Murphy recognized councilmember Gross for her efforts on behalf of the soon-to-be south side fire station. Ground breaking ceremonies were held last week. He also thanked voters who voted in Tuesday's election, especially the 290 persons who voted for Mr. Murphy.

Gross congratulated the winners and losers and councilmembers like Porter and herself who "stood and watched" (Gross and Porter are not running for re-election.

Regester commented on the 'healthy process' that primary elections afford voters and Porter commented on his "innocent by-stander" position.

Service thanked her opponent for a hard-fought clean campaign noting that it was the best sort of democratic race, with candidates disagreeing on very little but working very hard. She said she was looking forward to working with all democrats this fall.

Mayor Allison thanked the Rev. Ron Liesman, who with his family is leaving Bloomington for a position in Denver Colorado. Liesman served on the Board of Public Safety and the Human Resources Commission and dedicated himself totally to the Bloomington Community. She presented him with an encomium
