RESOLUTION # 4, 1962.

WHEREAS, the President of the United States has proclaimed October 24, 1962, as United Nations Day in keeping with past custom; and,

WHEREAS, the Chairman of the United States Committee for the United Nations has called upon the Mayors of their respective cities to appoint a United Nations chairman and co-chairman for United Nations Day; and

WHEREAS, in the past Mayors of the city of Bloomington have appointed a United Nations chairman and co-chairman of the local United Nations Committee after consultation with the latter committee; and,

WHEREAS, there is and has been in existence in the City of Bloomington a Citizens Committee for the United Nations, its chief aims being to develop understanding and appreciation of the United Nations and its work; that this Committee is an existing and permanent committee and is headed by a chairman and co-chairman selected by a nominating committee from members of its own group; and

WHEREAS, in order to avoid duplication of efforts, and to add a degree of continuity and permanency to local efforts in the observance of United Nations Day it is believed that a continuation of effort in this regard will be in the best interest of the community.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BLOOMINGTON, that a nominating committee of three (3) members be established, two (2) of whom shall be the out-going chairman and co-chairman of the Bloomington Citizens Committee for the United Nations, the third member to be selected by the Mayor of the City of Bloomington. The said nominating Committee shall submit to the Mayor names of a chairman and co-chairman whom the Mayor could officially appoint as United Nations chairman and co-chairman for the ensuing year.

Councilman Sikes moved and Councilman Chitwood seconded that Resolution # 4, 1962 be adopted; motion unanimously carried.
