

Monroe County Domestic Violence Coalition
Meeting Agenda
August 21, 2020

Mission: The Monroe County Domestic Violence Coalition is committed to improving our community's response to domestic violence issues through communication and coordination of services.

- I. Introductions (5 minutes)
Brief introductions around the Zoom room: name, organization, and reason for being part of the Coalition
- II. Guest Speaker Presentation (25-30 minutes)
Guest Speaker: Harry Heyer
Topic: Abuse Awareness and Accountability
- III. Staff Update (5 minutes)
 - Spring Conference
 - Stats Booklet
- IV. Information Sharing (10 minutes)

Next Meetings:

12 p.m., September 18, 2020, Zoom

Guest Speaker: Lynn Keller, Deputy Prosecutor, Monroe County Prosecutor's Office, Victim Advocacy and the Monroe County Prosecutor's Office

12 p.m., October 16, 2020, Zoom

Guest Speaker: TBD

12 p.m., November 20, 2020, Zoom

Guest Speaker: Amy Applegate, IU School of Law, Domestic Violence Screening Tool

Harry Heyer, LSW, MSW is a licensed mental wellness and addictions therapist and is also certified by the Indiana Coalition Against Domestic Violence (ICADV) as a Senior Batterers Intervention Program (BIP) facilitator. Over Harry's 14 years of practice he has specialized in behavior awareness and modification towards problematic patterns of behavior (i.e. "Criminal Thinking" especially as it relates to Power and Control behaviors). He conducts numerous presentations around the state educating service providers and others on recognition of early warning signs towards power and control issues and needs towards early and safe intervention. Harry is on numerous committees around the state and currently has business practices in the Bloomington, Franklin, Vincennes, Terre Haute, Evansville, Muncie, Anderson, Elwood, Lafayette, Rensselaer, Delphi and Crawfordsville areas.

