Report on Monthly Statistics, Training and Incident Reports; Letters of Appreciation and Commendation

Deputy Police Chief Joe Qualters reported on the monthly statistics, training and letters of appreciation and commendation. Susan Yoon questioned call volume and how the student population impacts that. Qualters said that the stats are now showing that the volume doesn't go down during the summer as they have in the past. He did note aggravated assaults are up and simple assaults were down.

Board member Luis Fuentes-Rohwer asked how Bloomington compares to other cities. Deputy Police Chief Qualters stated that they are getting a better idea of that because of using a new stat reporting system, NIBRS. Discussion was held on reporting. Board member Rafi Hasan noted cycles that happen and Qualters agreed. Qualters presented training and community engagement information which included the National Night Out Event and active shooter training.

Qualters reviewed, as per the Board's, request, stats on the social work and neighborhood resource specialists. Discussion was held on referrals from and to these employees.

Discussion was held on hate crime stats; Qualters noted this is reported on a quarterly basis. Susan Yoon requested that they see stats on that in next month's report.

Discussion was held on the City's night ambassador and the neighborhood specialist as well as further discussion on active shooter training availability. Deputy Fire Chief Washel noted a training with Indiana University simulating active shooter at a football game and emergency response to that situation.

Two letters of appreciation were noted concerning Detective Mike Baker and Detective McCamey in assisting U.S. Marshalls in an investigation. There was also a thank you for Coffee with a Cop at the College Mall and a thank you for keeping everyone safe at the Farmer's Market.

REVIEW OF BPS PAYROLL AND CLAIMS

Police Chief Diekhoff and Deputy Fire Chief Washel agreed the payrolls and claims were correct. Board signed the claims.

BOARD BUSINESS

Discussion was held on outdoor public event safety protocol.

It was noted that Labor Day weekend will be full of public events locally and the Board and Chiefs generally discussed how resources are allocated.

Deputy Chief Qualters noted that they allocate resources based on many factors such as type of event, location, history of event, climate and whether the event is private or public. He noted that during Labor Day weekend almost all officers are working.

Luis Fuentes-Rohwer had questions on a recent arrest at the Farmer's Market. Discussion was held on protocol in general and facts on the arrest with Deputy Police Chief Qualters presenting facts about the incident. Qualters directed the Board to the Department's General Order which is the procedure and policy for arrests, handling and transportation of detainees.

Police Chief Diekhoff noted that decisions were made on safety of officers and safety of the person being arrested for handcuffing this individual. Chief Diekhoff referenced national standards and training in which it is advised to handcuff subjects. Diekhoff noted that the department received lots of thanks as well as criticism and hoped the Board understands the difficult situation that the Department is in.

Further general discussion was held on the recent arrest at the Farmer's Market, KKK posters and basic safety protocol of outdoor public events.
