Bloomington/Monroe County Bicentennial

Happy Bicentennial, Bloomington and Monroe County!

Our jewel of a city sparkles with an energy and shine that reflects 200 years of grit and ingenuity. With this Bicentennial, let's rededicate ourselves to those values of fairness, charity, kindness, innovation, education and good old-fashioned hard work that brought us here. As we pass the torch to the following generations, let's do our part to pass along a healthy, humane and thriving community, so the next milestones will inspire celebrations as well.

-Bloomington Mayor John Hamilton

Trees Are Our Gift to Future Generations!

Planting trees is one of the easiest and most sustainable ways to positively affect the environment.

Trees improve air quality, store carbon, and moderate the effects of sun and wind. Trees also increase property value, generate jobs, and contribute raw materials. They are renewable, biodegradable and recyclable.

Landscapes that include trees help relax us, lower heart rates and reduce stress. Celebrate Bloomington's 200th birthday by planting a tree as a gift to Bloomington and its people!
