

City of Bloomington
Legal Department

December 18, 2018

Dear Educator:

The Bloomington Human Rights Commission is once again sponsoring an essay/art contest for area children. This year, in consideration of current events, our theme is "How has welcoming immigrants changed our society?" Please see the attached flyer for more details.

We'd be glad to come talk to your class about the contest if you'd like.

Please feel free to share this letter and flyers with your colleagues – we want as many teachers and principals to know about the contest as possible. And please contact me if you have any questions or concerns, at 812 349 3429 or mckinneb@bloomington.in.gov.

We hope you will be able to join us for the awards ceremony in the spring, date to be determined, as we celebrate the creative work of the winners. Thank you for all you do for the community.

Sincerely,

Barbara E. McKinney
Director, BHRC/Assistant City Attorney

Youth Art and Essay Contest!

K-3

At home, in school and at the playground, we live in a community filled with a diverse group of humans. In recognition our of diversity, the Bloomington Human Rights Commission invites you to create artwork or write an essay for this years theme:

How has welcoming immigrants changed our society?

Bloomington Human Rights Commission Youth Art and Essay Contest Guidelines:

- Students K-3rd grade may participate in one or both art & essay contest.
  - Essays cannot be more than 250 words.
  - Art can be a drawing, sculpture, poem, song, etc.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: February 15, 2019

A total of 100 WonderLab Passes to be WON !!!!*

#Bloomington200

Youth Art and Essay Contest!

4th-6th

At home, in school and at the playground, we live in a community filled with a diverse group of humans. In recognition our of diversity, the Bloomington Human Rights Commission invites you to create artwork or write an essay for this years theme:

How has welcoming immigrants changed our society?

Bloomington Human Rights Commission Youth Art and Essay Contest Guidelines:

- Students 4th-6th grade may participate in one or both art & essay contest.
  - Essays cannot be more than 500 words.
  - Art can be a drawing, sculpture, poem, song, etc.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: February 15, 2019

A total of 100 WonderLab Passes to be WON !!!!*

#Bloomington200