BLOOMINGTON HISTORIC PRESERVATION COMMISSION CONSULTING GRANT

GRANT BACKGROUND AND REQUIREMENTS

The Bloomington Historic Preservation Commission Consulting Grant is a reimbursement grant for up to four hundred dollars ("400.00") that is available to historic property owners or tenants in order to pay for consulting work for the rehabilitation of their historic property. The grant money is to be used for consulting fees associated with the rehabilitation of the exterior of a historic building only.

The owner/tenant must be contemplating building rehabilitation within the next year and the building must be listed in areas covered by the 2004 Bloomington Historic Sites and Structures Report. This survey information is available on-line at the city web site www.bloomington.in.gov or by calling Rachel Ellenson, Historic Preservation Program Manager at (812) 349-3507.

The Consultant must be on the Indiana Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology Qualified Professional list, which is available in the HAND office of City Hall, or recommended by city staff as appropriate to the description of the job. The consultant must be allowed access to the building. A copy of the final consultation report should be given to the owner and to the Bloomington Historic Preservation Commission.
